

7th Annual Basingstoke Rectal Cancer Symposium

Thursday, 26th September 2002

Course Director:
Course Organiser:
Colorectal Research Unit, NHH

Friday, 27th September 2002

Mr. Brendan Moran
Mrs. Rosemary Sexton
Tel: + 44 (0)1256 328070
Fax: +44 (0)1257 336556

08:30	Registration		08:30	The Ontario Quality in Rectal Cancer (QIRC) Trial	Dr. Marko Simunovic
09:00	Introduction	Professor Bill Heald and Mr Brendan Moran	09:00	The TME Project in Stockholm - improved survival and local control?	Dr. Torbjörn Holm
09:30	Endo-anal ultrasound in the assessment of rectal cancer	Mr. Darren Gold	09:30	Discussion, Followed by Coffee
09:50	The role of MRI	Dr. Delia Peppercorn	10:30	Pathological audit and assessment of rectal cancer	Professor Phil Quirke
10:10	Coffee		11:00	Discussion
10:40	Hepatic resection for colorectal metastases	Mr. Myrddin Rees	11:15	Anatomy of the pelvic nerves	Professor Chummy Sinnatamby
11:15	Pre-operative radiotherapy alone?	Dr. Geoffrey Sharpe	11:35	Cadaveric dissection – clinically useful?
11:40	Chemo-radiotherapy – Is it better, who, what and why?	Dr. David Sebag-Montefiore	11:55	Bladder and sexual dysfunction following rectal cancer surgery	Mr. Chris Eden
12:15	Discussion		12:20	Discussion
12:45	Lunch		12:40	Course photograph followed by lunch
			14:00	Stapling techniques for low cancers	Mr. Brendan Moran
			14:10	Case reports and problems	Mr. Amjad Parvaiz
13:45	Can we predict the difficulty of surgical excision for rectal cancer?	Mr. Ian Daniels	14:20	Variability in anastomotic leak rates between similarly trained rectal cancer surgeons	Mr. Justin Alberts
14:00 to 17:30	Live Link TME Operation		14:30	No significant gender differences in rectal cancer outcomes: analysis of 782 operative cases	Mr. Rob. Howell
		Professor Bill Heald Mr. Brendan Moran	14:40	The predictive value of nodal status for local recurrence after rectal cancer surgery	Mr. Tom Cecil
			14:50	Rectal cancer in the elderly: patients' perception of bowel control after restorative surgery	Miss Margaret Farquharson